WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

Rain showers will come to an end this morning. Another cold front will approach the area on Thursday with increasing rain chances mainly north of Cape Mendocino. Temperatures will be near to slightly above normal through the weekend.

Medford Weather:

Incoming short waves will bring rounds of showers and gusty winds to the area today and Wednesday. Snow levels will be quite high by the time precipitation develops, reaching 6500 to 7000 feet by this afternoon and remaining around that range into Wednesday night. Gusty winds will occur primarily over the ridges and east of the Cascades.

Reno Weather:

Generally dry weather with lighter winds and a warming trend is expected through this week. The exception will be near the Oregon border where a few light rain or snow showers are possible at times through Saturday, along with a moderate increase in winds.

San Francisco Weather:

A warming trend is expected through late week as high pressure builds over the eastern Pacific. Long range forecasts are in good agreement that a system will move to the region in the middle of next week with rain expected.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY:

Sacramento Weather:

Dry weather is expected for most of the area for the remainder of the week, although some light precipitation may occur at times over the far northern portion of the state.

Hanford Weather:

Clear skies and a slight warming trend forecast for the next several days as weak high pressure moves in. However, freezing temperatures will start the day this morning over parts of the San Joaquin Valley.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

Gusty northeast winds will continue today. A warming trend will begin today and peak Friday with above normal temperatures. A cooling trend and dry weather are expected over the weekend and into early next week.

Extreme Southwestern California including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

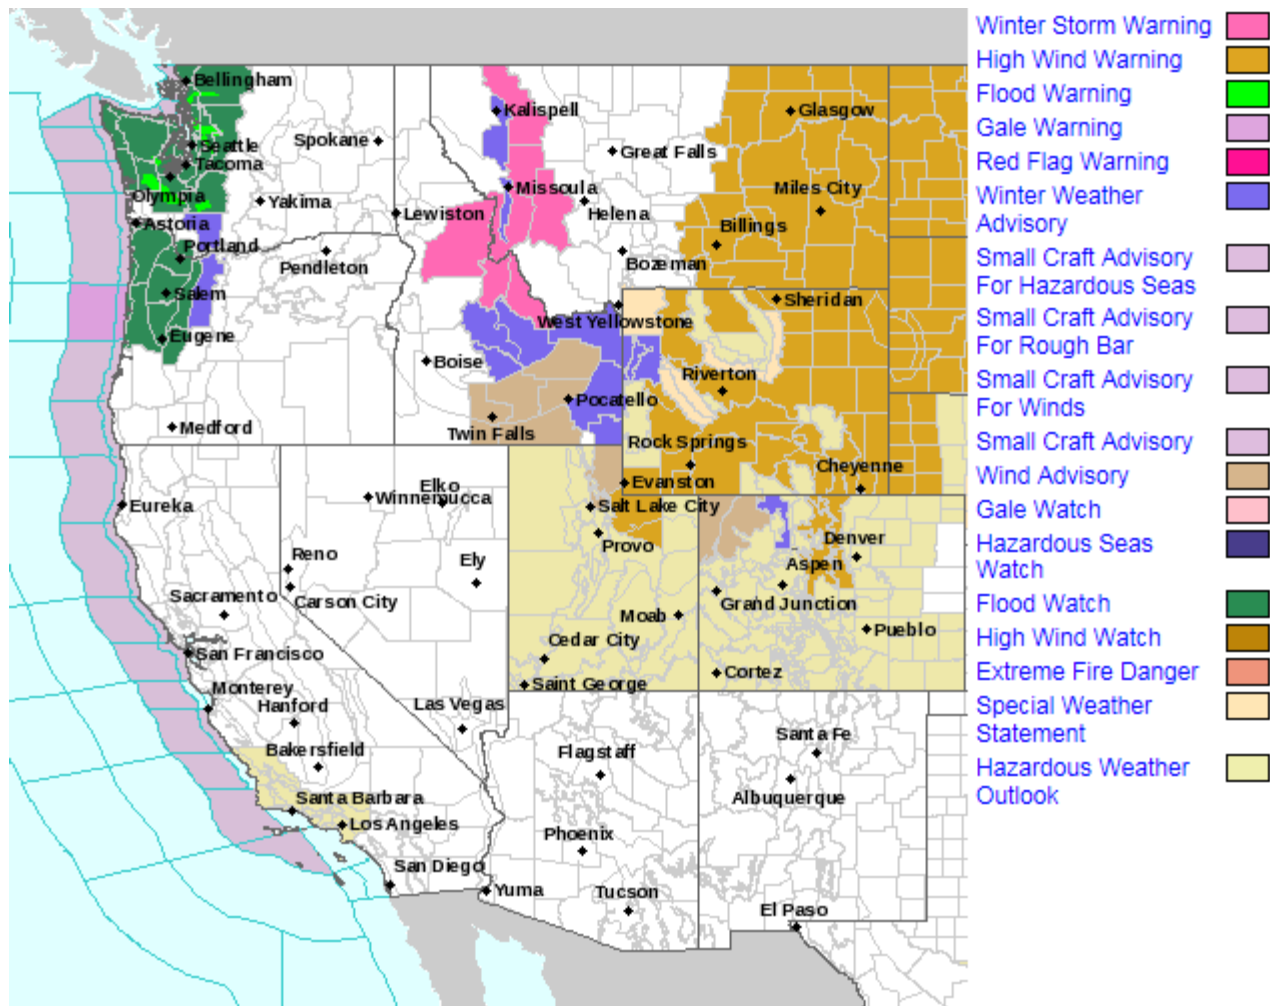

Cold temperatures expected this morning over the high deserts, mountains, and wind-sheltered valleys. Moderate to locally strong north-northeast winds will continue over portions of the forecast area this morning, weakening this afternoon. Warmer with mostly clear skies and weak offshore flow Wednesday through Friday. Cooler conditions forecast this weekend with onshore flow returning by early next week.

Southeast California Weather:

After the coolest morning so far this fall, sunny skies and continued cool daytime temperatures are in store for the forecast area today. Temperatures will continue to moderate through the work week, with a return of afternoon highs in the 70s and 80s as high pressure builds in the region.

CAL OES Recovery

Southern California Flooding

- On November 17, 2015, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) declared the primary county of Los Angeles and the contiguous counties of Kern, Orange, San Bernardino, and Ventura due to recent severe rain, flooding, and debris flows. This declaration will make low interest loans available for eligible renters, homeowners, and businesses affected by the disaster.

CAL OES 2014 DROUGHT

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- The SOC is activated in support of the Drought State of Emergency and continue to monitor the situation.
- The Governor issued Executive Order B-26-14 on 09/19/14, to streamline relief efforts for families with drinking water shortages due to drought, specifically through the California Disaster Assistance Act, to provide temporary water supplies to households without water for drinking and/or sanitation purposes.
- The Governor issued Executive Order B-29-15 on 04/01/15 which announced actions that will save water, increase enforcement to prevent wasteful water use, streamline the state's drought response and invest in new technologies to make California more drought resilient.
- CDAA 2014 Drought Fact Sheet and Frequently Asked Questions provided to Regions for reference and distribution.
- Cal OES Recovery continues to coordinate the Community Impacts Workgroup conference calls. Currently, the calls take place on alternating Wednesdays.
- Cal OES Recovery/Individual Assistance finalized an updated 2015 version of the drought brochure of programs and services for individuals, businesses, farmers, and ranchers. It has been put on the Governor's Drought webpage. State agencies may put the following link to the brochure on their webpage <http://ca.gov/drought/pdf/Drought-Assistance-Brochure-2015.pdf>
- Cal OES Regions (Inland, Coastal, Southern) collective OA drought call is facilitated by the SOC every other Monday at 1100 hours.
